Let's Visit

Monkeys

It is fun to watch monkeys.
They jump from tree to tree and swing by their tails.

Elephant

The elephant's long trunk is his nose.
He uses it as an arm, too.
He puts food and water into his mouth with it.
He carries things with it.

Mr. Zoo Keeper is very sad.
Two of his animals are not in their cages!
Can you put them there for him?

Seals

A seal can live on land and in the water.
Seals can learn to do many tricks.

Zebras

The zebra has a coat of black and white stripes.

ZOO

The Zoo

The ostrich is bigger than any other bird.
He can not fly, but he can run very fast.

Ostrich

Kangaroo

The kangaroo has strong legs and feet.
He can jump and hop
from place to place.
Baby kangaroo rides in a pocket
in his mother's skin.

Giraffe

The giraffe is very tall.
He has long legs and a long, long neck.
He can eat the leaves
from the tree tops.

American Buffalo

This big animal lives in the western part of our country.
It is the American Buffalo.

My Summer With Jesus

I will go to Mass every Sunday and on August 15.

I will remember my daily prayers.

I will be kind and helpful.

My Own Prayer Book

An Act of Contrition

Oh, my God,
I am sorry for all my sins.
I love You because You are so good to me.
I will try not to sin again.

The Our Father

Our Father who art in heaven,

God is the Father of all people.
We are all His children.
A good father takes care of his family.
God takes care of all of us.

The Sign of the Cross

In the name of the Father,

And of the Son,

And of the Holy Ghost.

Amen.

Angel of God

Angel of God,
My guardian dear,
To whom God's love
Entrusts me here,
Ever this day
Be at my side
To light and guard
To rule and guide.
Amen.

Hallowed be Thy name;

Hallowed means holy.
We love God.
That is why we want His name to be kept holy.

Glory Be to the Father

Glory be to the Father,
and to the Son,
and to the Holy Ghost.
As it was in the beginning, is now,
and ever shall be,
world without end. Amen.

Holy Mary, Mother of God,
pray for us sinners,
now and at the hour of our death.
Amen.

Thy kingdom come;

A kingdom is a land
ruled by a king.
A good king is loved by all his people.
The world belongs to God.
We want all people in the world to know and love God.

The Hail Mary

Hail Mary, full of grace!
the Lord is with thee;

Give us this day our daily bread;

We ask God to give us the food
we need to be strong and healthy.
God has put into this world animals and plants for our food.
We need food for our souls, too.
God gives us this food
in Holy Communion.

Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

We know what God wills, or wants, us to do.

The Ten Commandments tell us what God wants us to do.

Our parents and teachers tell us.

When we obey, we do what God wills.

Blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus.

and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us;

Every day we should ask God to forgive our sins.

We do this when we say the Act of Contrition.

If we want God to forgive us, we must forgive others who have done unkind things to us.

and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. Amen.

We ask God to keep us from sin and from the danger of sin.

We also ask Him to keep us from anything that can hurt our souls or our bodies.

Hi! I'm Johnny Jump-Up

Show your sisters, brothers and friends how to make Johnny Jump-Up.

Cut a piece of paper that is longer than it is wide. Fold it in half, and cut it into strips, cutting in from the folded edge. Do not cut all the way through the paper. Open the paper and roll it into a tube. Glue it together.

Now Johnny needs a head, arms and hands, and feet. Make them with your crayons, paper and scissors. Paste them in the right places.

Carefully press Johnny down—and he will jump up!

Ann Marie's Braids

Everyone knew Ann Marie with the long yellow braids.
When people saw a girl in a blue hat with two long yellow braids hanging down in back, they said,
"That must be Ann Marie."
But Ann Marie wanted to have short curls.

One day after vacation began,
Mother said to Ann Marie,
"We will go to visit your godmother!"

Ann Marie loved her godmother.
She loved visiting on her farm.
She would play with the kittens and go swimming in the little pond.

"Oh, Mother," Ann Marie said,
"may I have my hair cut for the summer?
Short hair will be so much better when I go swimming!"

Mother took Ann Marie to the barber shop.
Snip, snip, snip! The barber held one fat, yellow braid in his hand.

Snip, snip, snip!
The barber held the other
fat, yellow braid in his hand.

Snip, snip, snippity-snip!
Little curls sprang up all over Ann Marie's head.

Ann Marie felt a little sad.
Her long, yellow braids lay on the barber's table.

The barber saw Ann Marie look at the braids.
"You may take them home," he said.
"Would you like that?"

"Oh, yes," said Ann Marie.
The barber put the braids into a box for Ann Marie.
On the way home, people looked and looked at Ann Marie.
They did not know her at first,
without her yellow braids.

"What if my godmother does not know me," thought Ann Marie.

What could she do about it?

When it was time to go on the bus,
Ann Marie had her own little bag.
Mother had a big bag.
They were on the bus
for one, two, three hours.
Then they were far out in the country, where Ann Marie's godmother lived.

Mother and Ann Marie got off the bus.
Mother looked around.
"I do not see your godmother," she said.

Then someone called from behind them,
"Ann Marie, Ann Marie!"
There was Ann Marie's godmother.
She hugged Ann Marie and Mother.

"As soon as I saw those long yellow braids,
I knew it was Ann Marie," she said.

Mother looked at Ann Marie.

Ann Marie had put on her blue hat.
Her long yellow braids hung down from under the hat!

"Now I have curls, and I have long braids, too," said Ann Marie.
"I pinned my braids inside my hat!"
